• (U) The Government of Belgium has informed the Embassy Brussels DAO that the seven American journalists (among 12 journalists) departed Kigali aboard a Belgian plane bound for Nairobi. Embassy Nairobi confirms that the journalists are reported to have been aboard one of several flights that have arrived there during the past two hours. Nairobi DAO personnel were at the airport when the airplanes arrived, and are attempting to make contact with the journalists. (TF/Embassy Brussels and Embassy Nairobi telcons)

• (C) Discussion and vote in the UNSC on the Nigerian-led NAM resolution to increase the number of UNAMIR troops as well as to expand its mandate in Rwanda is expected as early as this evening. The U.S. and Western allies plan to veto the resolution if necessary. The Belgians have requested a strong U.S. statement in favor of the withdrawal of UNAMIR. The U.S. will push for a SC presidential statement authorizing the SYG to withdraw UNAMIR. (Embassy Brussels and USUN)
